OKTATÁS CÉLJA / AIM OF THE COURSE

The aim of this course is to introduce students to planning, organization, control and leadership. It will provide knowledge and tools for future managers to understand and utilize management literature. Students are expected to know basic term and concepts of management in order to participate. Additionally, the course aims to help students' self-assessment and insights, to promote collaboration and management skills (such as time management, motivation, communication, teamwork prioritization or conflict management). The composition of the course is based on the latest methods, thus builds on several source materials. Besides class participation, students are expected to process handouts and case studies, or watch suggested video materials to obtain professional self-development skill and adopt life-long learning
