OKTATÁS CÉLJA / AIM OF THE COURSE

This course attempts to provide a balanced coverage of the key elements which make up the discipline of Organisational Behaviour. Its aim is to introduce the topics, give firm theoretical knowledge and the summary of recent research in the field. Through frequent interactions and reflections, the course will bring the theory closer to students who already have practical knowledge of how different organisations work. The course will also contribute to further business studies of students who complete it.

SZÁMONKÉRÉSI ÉS ÉRTÉKELÉSI RENDSZERE / ASSESMENT'S METHOD

Students' contribution:

Students have to choose case studies related to the topics of the course. Based on them, they have to give short presentations and lead discussions within the study group. Also, active participation of all students is required during the lectures and these sessions.

Evaluation:

This course finishes with an exam. However, students will be offered a mark based on their presentation(s) and a final test. If students don't accept the mark, they have to sit for a written exam in the exam period. Presentation(s) account for 20-40% of the final mark.

Marks (%):

100 – 85 – excellent (5)

84 – 75 – good (4)

74 – 65 – satisfactory (3)

64 – 55 – pass (2)

54 – – fail (1)
