OKTATÁS CÉLJA / AIM OF THE COURSE

The course is a historical overview of the evolution of international politics from its early (1789) beginnings to the end of the World War II. Its purpose is twofold: First and foremost to recall the major stages of this evolution with the view of enabling students to have an in-depth knowledge of long-term trends and processes and the roots of current historical features. Second objective: to serve either as a complementary or as a preliminary class to a course on International Relations theories.
