SZÁMONKÉRÉSI ÉS ÉRTÉKELÉSI RENDSZERE / ASSESSMENT'S METHOD

Attendance of lectures, active participation and successful presentation of the assignments is a prerequisite for the colloquium. Exam is a written publication on a chosen topic.

Dear Student!

The final task of the semester is to prepare a qualitative test among the students and find the answer to the question why there is such a high proportion of female students compared to male students on campus.

To do this, a focus group should be created and a series of three questions must be compiled

1/ what is the tradition in the family

2/ does he come from a family of intellectuals or workers

3/ why she/he chose design as her/his profession

The deadline for making presentations is November 28
